Hindu Religious Institutions (All-India Legislation)

* 36 Q.—SRI S. MADHAVAN: Will the Hon. the Chief Minister be pleased to state—

(a) whether the Central Government have asked for the State Government's view in regard to the passing of an All-India Legislation relating to Hindu Religious Institutions; and

(b) if so, the views expressed by the State Government?

THE HON. SRI M. BHAKTAVATSALAM: (a) Yes.

(b) This Government considered that as customs and usages differ from State to State and from religion to religion, a common legislation for all States in India may not be a success, and therefore suggested that it may be left to the several States to have their own legislation to regulate the administration of religious institutions with reference to their local customs and usages.

Indian Agriculture Service
